Instructions for Submission

Once you have completed the above template (woo hoo!), please attach your PDF to an email to create@noonmiracle.com, with a subject line reading: SUBMISSION - [Your Name].

We are happy you are here and looking forward to reviewing your submission. While we wish we could choose everyone's project, those who stay within the Audio/Visual Quality, Creative Quality, and Editing & Output parameters will be the only ones who will be considered, so thank you for your attention to those details in advance. We will accept submissions via private Google Drive, YouTube, Hightail, or Vimeo links.

If you do not yet have a completed project or are in development, we will accept PDFs or Google Drive attachments to your script or proof of concept.

If you are in partnership or development with another entity or person, you must also submit signed partnership or notarized release forms, depending on their current involvement. If you do not own the material, you must have a release form if it is longer than 2 minutes or a statement of its public domain status.

You should hear from us within 2 - 3 weeks of your submission.

If your work is selected to be featured on our Noon Miracle platform, you will be informed via email. We will request if you have not already done so that the project file be transferred via WeTransfer, Hightail, or an equivalent service designed to transfer large files. If you have additional material, such as BTS production images or project stills that we can use for promotional purposes, we may request them with your high-resolution version submission.

We will strive to inform you when we expect your project to be released on the platform, and ask that you promote and share alongside us where possible for our collective success.

We are not able to showcase every submitted project. If you are unsuccessful in this submission round, you are invited to submit a different project in the future. Repeat identical submissions that have already received a rejection will not be considered again and may preclude further consideration of your body of work.

Thank you for sharing your creative spirit and your work with us. We are so grateful for the time and effort that you have invested in our mission to unite and transform the world through your passion and art.

Break a leg!
